

Professional Men Who Have Checked Parts of the Manuscript of God's Time-Records in Ancient Sediments, by Dan Wonderly,
Crystal Press, 1977

Name*	Main Field(s) of Competence	Position, etc.	Chapters Checked
George W. Andrews	sedimentary geology	U. S. Geological Survey (He is author of the "Geology" chapter in Christ and the Modern Mind , InterVarsity Press, 1972)	3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11
Kenneth L. Currie	geology	Canadian Geological Survey (He is author of three chapters in Rock Strata and the Bible Record , Concordia Press, 1970)	5
Wayne Frair	zoology & Bible	The King's College (Professor of Biology. He is also--or at least recently was--secretary of the Board of the Creation Research Society, and an active member of the American Scientific Affilia- tion as well.)	10 and 11
Jesse D. Humberd	physical science & Bible	Grace College (Chairman of Science Division)	1 through 8
James R. Moore	history of science, theology	The Open University of Milton Keynes, England (He is a grad- uate of Trinity Seminary in Deerfield, Ill.)	10 and 11
Robert C. Newman	Bible, theology, & astrophysics	Biblical School of Theology, Hat- field, PA. (Professor of Bible, and senior author of Genesis One and the Origin of the Earth , InterVarsity Press, 1977)	All the chapters and appendices
John H. Stoll	Bible and theology	Grace College (Chairman of the Department of Biblical Studies)	1, 2, 4
John W. Stuber	philosophy	LeTourneau College (Dean of the College)	1, 2, 4
W. L. Wonderly	linguistics and anthropology	American Bible Society (Translation consultant)	1, 2, 10, 11
Donald H. Zenger	sedimentary geology	Pomona College (Chairman of Geology Dept.)	7, 8, and part of 5

*All of these men hold the Ph. D. degree. Most of their suggestions have been incorporated into the text.